SHANE CLIPFELL

HEAD COACH

Eastern Michigan - 2006
Second Season

The Western Michigan Division of Intercollegiate Athletics officially announced the hiring of Shane Clipfell as the sixth women's basketball coach in program history, Friday, April 13, 2012. Clipfell has strong ties in the state of Michigan, the Mid-American Conference and the Midwest and has worked at every level of women's basketball.

2012-13:

The 2012-13 season marked the beginning of the Clipfell era at Western Michigan, as he took on the task of rebuilding the Bronco program that had posted just 33 wins and 17 conference victories in the four seasons prior.

Progress could be seen across the board in Clipfell's first season. The team posted an 11-20 overall and 6-10 Mid-American Conference record, marking the most wins in five years. The team also advanced to the second round of the MAC Tournament for the first time since 2008 after defeating higher-seeded Eastern Michigan on the road in the first round.

Another signature win for the Broncos was a 55-54 victory over then eight-time defending regular season MAC champion Bowling Green in Kalamazoo.

Clipfell's totals set a new mark for the most overall wins (11) and MAC wins (6) as a first-year head coach at Western Michigan. He also became the first women's basketball coach to win his first game at WMU (defeated American, 57-53) and win a MAC Tournament game in his first season.

Two Broncos were recognized for their play by the conference. Sophomore forward Marquisha Harris was named Honorable Mention All-MAC and freshman center Miracle Woods was one of five named to the All-MAC Freshman team.

PRIOR TO WMU:

In the previous 14 years prior to Western Michigan, Clipfell worked in different capacities on a Suzy Merchant staff. He began with Merchant as an assistant at Eastern Michigan during the 1998-99 season and coached alongside Merchant at Michigan State for five years after Merchant took the Spartan helm in 2007-08. For the final three years, Clipfell served as the associate head coach at Michigan State, coordinating the program's recruiting efforts, including organizing official, unofficial, off-campus and home visits.

In addition to recruiting, Clipfell focused on MSU's offensive game preparation, in-game adjustments and skill development of perimeter players. The Spartans captured their first outright Big Ten title in school history in 2010-11 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament four-straight seasons.

While Clipfell was at Michigan State, the Spartans produced 17 All-Big Ten recognitions, 20 Academic All-Big Ten selections, and several players collected major Big Ten awards. Kalisha Keane was named Player of the Year in 2010-11, after earning Sixth Player of the Year the season prior. The Spartans had back-to-back Defensive Players of the Year in Alyssa DeHaan (2009-10) and Lykendra Johnson (2010-11). Both Keane and DeHaan were named All-Americans following their senior seasons and DeHaan finished her career second all-time in NCAA history in blocked shots.

Clipfell (DOB: 8/29/63) earned a bachelor of science degree in communications at Eastern Michigan in 2006. Before Clipfell joined the coaching profession full-time at the collegiate level, he worked in the manufacturing industry. Clipfell and his wife, Connie, have two adult children, John and Lauren.

Rene Haynes joined the Western Michigan staff as an assistant coach in June 2012 after serving as a graduate assistant for Florida State's women's basketball program for one year. Haynes had a distinguished collegiate career at Michigan State and played four years professionally overseas.

A Columbus, Ohio, native, Haynes played for the Spartans from 2003-07, scoring the 12th-most points in school history with 1,181. She also tallied the second-most steals in the MSU annals (245) and ranked seventh in three-pointers (111) at the end of her career. She was a member of the winningest senior class in school history with 103 victories. She played in 135 games - the most in Spartan history - and averaged 8.7 ppg and 3.5 rpg during her career.

As a senior in 2006-07, Haynes earned All-Big Ten Second team and All-Defensive Team honors from the league's coaches. She was an All-Big Ten Third Team selection by the media. Haynes started all 33 games her final season, averaging 10.4 ppg, 4.4 rpg and 3.4 apg.

After her collegiate career, Haynes played professionally overseas for FoA in Finland and ProBuld Basketball Club in Amsterdam.

Kristin Koetsier, a former Miss Michigan Basketball and Bronco All-American, is in her fourth season as an assistant coach at Western Michigan. Koetsier's primary responsibilities include post player development and recruiting.

Arguably the most decorated player in Western Michigan women's basketball history, Koetsier competed at WMU from 1999-2003 where she was a three-time First Team All-Mid-American Conference selection. Limited to just three complete seasons, Koetsier ranks seventh in career scoring, amassing 1,452 points and 682 rebounds. Her career averages stand at 16.3 points and 7.6 rebounds per game.

Koetsier made an impact the moment she arrived on campus, earning Mid-American Conference Freshman of the Year honors in 2000. She was also tabbed a Women's Basketball Journal Freshman All-American and Women's Basketball News Service Freshman All-American. Averaging 18.6 ppg and 9.5 rpg her first season, she led Western Michigan to a MAC West title and the school's first ever WNIT appearance in 2000.

Koetsier's career was slowed down by an ACL injury four games into her sophomore season. Additionally, Koetsier battled through two different types of rare blood disorders prior and during her career at Western Michigan. Returning to the floor for the 2001-02 season, she went on to start all 31 games and average 15.0 points and 7.5 rebounds per game. Her story brought national attention and she was the recipient of both the Jimmy V Foundation Comeback of the Year and Honda Inspiration Awards in 2002.

In her final season (2002-03), Koetsier was named a Kodak Honorable Mention All-American, averaging 16.6 points and 6.0 rebounds per game. She guided Western Michigan to its second ever MAC Tournament Championship and an NCAA Tournament appearance that season.

A prep star from Grandville, Mich., Koetsier was the 1998 Miss Michigan Basketball recipient and heavily recruited out of high school. She was the first ever Miss Michigan Basketball to attend WMU. She was inducted into the Grand Rapids Hall of Fame in October, 2010.

After graduating from Western Michigan in 2003, Koetsier coached at the AAU, middle school and high school levels. During the 2009-10 season, she served as the head coach at Bloomingdale, a Class C high school in Michigan.

In her first year of eligibility, Koetsier was inducted into the Western Michigan Athletic Hall of Fame in October, 2013.

Before beginning her coaching career, Koetsier worked as an elementary special education paraprofessional in South Haven, Mich. She is the mother of two children, Mackenzie and Jimmy.

CARA PEARSON

ASSISTANT COACH
Minnesota - 1995
Second Season

Cara Pearson joined the Western Michigan staff as an assistant coach in June 2012. Previously she had spent the last five seasons at Buffalo, holding the title as associate head coach for four.

While at UB, Pearson worked closely with the post players and assisted on the administrative end of the program, including scheduling.

In 2011-12, Pearson focused more on the Bulls' guard play and coached Brittany Hedderson to one of the best seasons in school history. Hedderson was a first-team All-MAC selection, while also setting a school record for points in a game and finishing second in school history for points in a season.

In 2010-11, Pearson coached Kourtney Brown, who became UB's all-time leading scorer, rebounder and shot blocker. Brown was named the MAC Player of the Year and became just the second player in school history to garner All-American honors.

In 2009-10, Brown picked up her first All-MAC First Team honor as well as the MAC's Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2008-09, she helped coach Brown to school records in points scored and field goals in a season. Brown earned All-MAC honors both athletically and academically. Finishing second in scoring for the Bulls in 2008-09 was another post player, Jessica Fortman.

During Pearson's first season at UB, she helped coach Heather Turner to an All-MAC Honorable Mention selection. Turner finished as the only player in school history to record more than 1,300 career points and 900 career rebounds. Pearson also served as interim head coach for two games during the season.

Prior to joining the Bulls, Pearson spent three years in the same capacity at North Dakota State. With the Bison, Pearson was responsible for all on-campus official and unofficial visits and organized and maintained all compliance records with respect to NCAA rules and regulations. Pearson assisted in scouting opponents and producing reports to aid in game preparation. She also helped improve the interior game by introducing a philosophy of power post play, which produced a second-team All-Conference player and two players who finished in the top five in the conference in blocks and rebounds.

Prior to North Dakota State, Pearson spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Loyola-Chicago and one season as an assistant coach at Akron. She began her collegiate coaching career for Linda Hill-MacDonald at Minnesota in 1996 before taking a break to play professionally, including a stint with the WNBA's Cleveland Rockers in 1999. Pearson also played professionally in Switzerland, Finland, Luxembourg and Spain.

Pearson, who graduated from Minnesota in 1995 with a degree in Psychology, is 13th on the all-time scoring list and captained the first Minnesota women's basketball team to receive a Top 25 ranking. She was voted the team's most valuable player during her senior season and was an All-Big Ten honorable mention selection in 1992 and 1994. Pearson helped lead Minnesota to its first NCAA Tournament appearance and a trip to the second round. Following the season, she joined the Big Ten All Star team where the squad finished 8-0 on its tour.
